Re: RED ALERT! What does FEMA know? Seeking contractor for Bio-disposal of Tents and 40 Yard Dumpsters

Just guessing, but if the New Madrid goes or the Canary Islands cause a Tsunami, or "the big one" hits Cali, or Yellowstone blows, or the Louisiana sink hole rips open into a gigantic methane filled salt dome that blows sky high and then sucks the Gulf of Mexico a few hundred miles inland...

Yeah, they might need a few tents for people and dumpsters for stuff.

... just sayin'

Wow... what a statement.

Some crazy paper pusher justified their salary for the week by coming up with a disaster plan. Now someone else is justifying it by seeking out contractors to be ready to implement it.

DHS/FEMA workers probably reads GLP for ideas on disaster plans.

I had a roommate that was involved in disaster relief working for the EPA. They averaged about 6 days a month working from the office. The rest of the time, their itinerary looked like something from Lifestyles Of The Rich & Famous as they attended "conferences" while pulling-in a 6-figure salary.

There always "something" up in the minds of conspiracy theorists.

What wrong with being prep for anything and everything that "might" happen?

Next year people will be saying the same things that have been post one to many time. Then the 2016 will come around and things that where posted in 2012 will be brought up again saying it will happen that year or the year after that.

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 52746091

Bay area you say?

One takes the good with the bad, I reckon.
